OLSP PARISH CENTRE (THE HALL) REPAIRS AND REDECORATION - AN UPDATE We have completed repairs to broken drains around the centre including the installation of additional inspection chambers. We are now awaiting the go-ahead from our Parish insurers, with whom we are pursuing a claim, to complete structural repairs and redecoration. With the insurers, we are keen to ensure that the settlement of foundations has ceased before permitting the necessary repairs and strengthening work, together with redecorating, to proceed. To satisfy insurer requirements, we continue to monitor the Parish Centre for any residual movement and hope to progress this to a conclusion over the next few months at which point all the work will be completed. Meanwhile, the parish centre is still available just to our Parish groups for meetings and assemblies; please always liaise beforehand with our bookings secretary Mrs Maribel Favor (maribelfavor@gmail.com). Thank you.

SVP WARMLY INVITE YOU - to a concert given by the distinguished guitar duo Ariel Gragnani and Luiz Morais, 3pm on Sunday 12 June at St Bernard's.

With a strong Latin flavour and hints of jazz and classical, Ariel and Luiz present a highly evocative performance combining exciting rhythm, alluring melodies, virtuosity and colour. The repertoire will include Brazilian and Latin pieces as well as much loved themes from world cinema.

Proceeds in aid of the National SVP Sudan Baby Feeding Programme.

Tickets are available at guitarconcert.eventbrite.co.uk or at the door on the day (in which case please bring cash). £12 Adult, £7 Child under 16.

The concert lasts about one hour and twenty minutes with no interval and CDs will be on sale at the end. Note that this time there's no sumptuous cream tea, just a sumptuous feast of music. There will, however, be mince pies and mulled wine at the SVP Carol Service on Thursday 22nd December 2022 at St Bernard's at 7:30pm. Save the date and spread the word.
